|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Amir's cousin gets paid for babysitting, straight into a phone app |
| Someone does a chore at home for a small payment                   |
| Someone sells a toy they no longer want                            |
| Someone wishes really hard for more pocket money                   |

|                              |
|------------------------------|
| Earned by doing a chore      |
| Not a real way to earn money |
| Earned by doing a job        |
| Earned by selling something  |

Which one have YOU done, or seen someone else do?
